POEM

Read by Rod Evans, Alan's brother-in-law

In forests deep where shadows play,
among the trees, you found your way.
With each new trail, a bright display
of nature's beauty, day by day.

With boots that trod on paths anew,
you scaled the peaks where eagles flew.
In every step, your spirit shown,
a hiker's joy: a world your own.

The forest spoke, the rivers sang,
in every step, the wildness rang.
Through rugged hills and open skies,
you found your truth where freedom lies.

Now you walk the mountainside,
in endless trails, where dreams abide.
With steady steps and eyes so wise,
you roam beneath the endless skies.

So rest beneath the timeless trees,
your spirit dancing in the breeze.

WORDS OF THANKS FOR ALAN'S LIFE

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy Kingdom come; thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

WE SAY GOODBYE TO ALAN
